

Media release

Highfield Caringbah opens the doors to the Public House!

5 December 2017: Highfield Caringbah will officially launch the Public House this Friday 8 December from 10am. Located in the middle of Highfield Caringbah, the Public House is the ultimate playground for sporting lovers!

The Public House features over 80 TVs to capture every sporting moment plus state of the art TAB facilities. The bar features 22 beers on tap plus an extensive wine list. The Bistro will serve up tasty pub fare including schnitzels, burgers, steaks and the delicious Parmi Royale.

"We can not wait to launch the Public House and showcase the awesome design, facilities, menu and drinks on offer this Friday!, said Director & CEO of The Feros Group Chris Feros.

The Botanical, located on the top-level will open mid December and will feature incredible city skyline views, dedicated cocktail bar, stone fireplace and living green wall. The Botanical will have a fantastic menu including delicious BBQ skewers, which are cooked on a custom, designed Robata grill using the freshest, seasonal produce.

Highfield Caringbah will not be taking bookings until the New Year, however walk-ins are encouraged. The precinct also includes the already successful Huxley's and Ugly Pizza, which will continue to operate and service their growing customer base.

ENDS